

Personal Reflection/Self-Evaluation

This assignment invites you to reflect upon your learning and performance over the past several weeks.

Please review the course syllabus, including the overview, objectives, and assignments; as well as attendance, engagement, and academic expectations. Write a 500-1000 word paper discussing the following:

- 1) As a learner: Discuss 2-3 big ideas you have learned relative to the teaching of writing. What do you feel most comfortable/confident about based upon your experiences in the course? What do you want to pursue further? Please provide examples/references.
- 2) As a professional: Discuss your engagement, contributions, and personal responsibilities for your success in the course. What are your strengths in these areas? What do you feel you need to improve upon as you pursue your career in education?
- 3) Self-Evaluation: Based on the above reflections, evaluate yourself on a 100 point scale. Please provide brief, but honest and realistic explanations for your assessment.
